

10 Gallon Tank Fund!

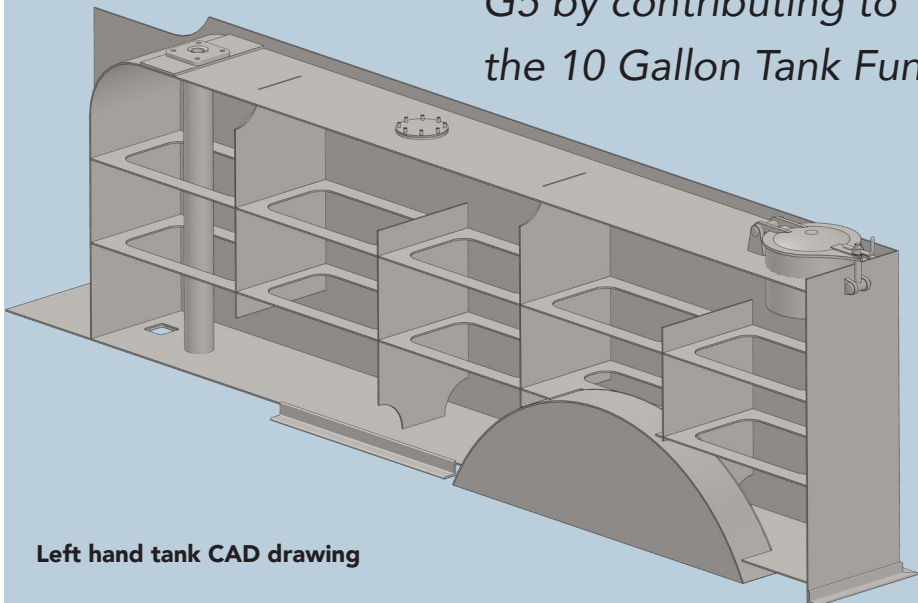

The next phase of the build is the fabrication of the two side tanks. These water containers are welded and will be positioned on the tank supports already fitted to the frame. The tanks are engineered with an internal baffle arrangement which is necessary to control the movement of the water inside when the engine is accelerating or braking. This particular element of design has been slightly tricky as there aren't any original G5 drawings, therefore we are relying on another Wilson Worsdell design - the J72 tank engine (designed in 1898). Alan Parkin (our CAD engineer) has paid particular attention to the baffles and the fireman's brake mechanism that runs through the left-hand tank.

To fund the estimated cost of £24,500 we are launching the 10 Gallon Tank Fund with a suggested contribution of £180 for 10 gallons of water either as a one off payment or by standing order as a donation or shares in the company (welcoming the 30% EIS tax relief benefit).

We welcome you to support us to fill the total 1360 gallon capacity for No. 1759.
